

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE
Wednesday, October 31, 2007

GOVERNOR NAMES ANDERSON TO MARICOPA SUPERIOR COURT BENCH

PHOENIX – Governor Janet Napolitano announced today that she has appointed Aimee Anderson to serve as a Judge in the Maricopa County Superior Court. Anderson fills the new position created by the establishment of Division 95, in response to the County's growth.

Anderson has served as a Commissioner of the Maricopa County Superior Court since 2001. Previously, Anderson served as an Assistant Attorney General for the state of Arizona in the Children and Family Protection Division, and has worked in the Office of the Legal Defender in Maricopa County.

A Phoenix resident, Anderson holds her bachelor's and law degrees from Arizona State University.

Anderson is active in numerous professional and community organizations, and is also a former member of the United States Track and Field Team.

For more information about the Office of the Governor, please visit www.azgovernor.gov.